

Invited Session IPS 104– Panel Discussion
Research, Collaborations, and Opportunities at the International Level: A Panel Discussion
ISI World Statistics Congress, Hong Kong
August 27, 2013 (Tuesday), 13:00-15:15

Organizer and Chair:

Dr. Vijay Nair

+1-734-763-8018 vnn@umich.edu

Professor of Statistics and of Industrial & Operations Engineering
277 West Hall, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48109, USA

Panelists:

Dr. Zhi-Ming MA

+86-1062562362 mazm@amt.ac.cn

Professor, Institute of Applied Mathematics, Academy of Math and Systems Science, CAS
No.55, Zhong-guan-cun East Road, Beijing 100190, CHINA
<http://www.amt.ac.cn/member/mazhiming/eindex.html>

Dr. Bimal K. ROY

+91 (33) 2575-2809 bimal@isical.ac.in

Director, Indian Statistical Institute
203 B.T.Road, Kolkata 700108, INDIA
www.isical.ac.in/~bimal

Dr. Ronald Wasserstein

+1-703 684-1221 ron@amstat.org

Executive Director, American Statistical Association
732 North Washington Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22214, USA

Abstract:

This session will start with presentations by professional leaders from China, India, and the US who will provide their perspectives on major research directions, funding models, and collaborative efforts. This will be followed by discussion, led by the panelists and with contributions from session participants, on how to stimulate research collaborations at an international level, opportunities, and challenges.