

Untitled

Quantile estimation for nonstationary time series

by Wei Biao Wu

I will introduce a class of locally stationary processes whose data-generating mechanism is time-varying. For such processes I will discuss estimation of quantile and expectile curves. Consistency and asymptotic normality results will be presented and application to real data will be discussed. Part of this work is joint with Zhou Zhou.